

4. What does Paul say that can be known about God (v19-20)? How are these things made known?

5. How should we respond to this knowledge (v.21).

6. What have people done to the truth about God (v18-23)?

7. What has happened to our minds and heart as a result (v28)?

8. How would you summarize this passage's teaching about human nature and God's attitude toward humanity as a whole?

9. In light of this passage, how would you respond to someone who said that human beings are fundamentally good?

10. What evidence do you see in the world that this passage's teaching is true?

11. Why do you think its important for us as Christians to clearly proclaim that people are in need of radical change? What would happen if we muted this part of the Christian message?

12. What are some ways the local church as a whole can clearly communicate this need for change?

